INTRODUCTION

The 2017 Report on the Slovak Audiovisual Situation is the jubilee fifteenth issue, as published by our Creative Europe Desk office. We also celebrate the jubilee by the fact that, as far as various aspects of the audiovisual industry are concerned, the Report is exceptionally positive. The results achieved by Slovak films in both domestic distribution and success at international festivals are the best since Slovakia gained independence.

We will start with cinema distribution, as we are currently witnessing a real revolution in this sector. The increase in attendance in Slovak cinemas by 18.1% to over 6,692,000 viewers, in the number of screenings (by 2.54%) and in average attendances (by 15.7%) have confirmed the trend of the previous period and copied the growing numbers in Europe (the total number of viewers in 2017 attained 1.29 billion, the highest since 2004). The massive shift in attendances at Slovak films is also a surprise: All or Nothing (Všetko alebo nič, 340,535 viewers) was the most attended, The Line (Čiara, 329,349 viewers and record gross box office takings of EUR 1,749,425) was second and two other Slovak films featured in the TOP 10 – Kidnapping (Únos, 4th place with 278,763 viewers) and Cuky Luky Film (10th place with 116,139 viewers). Such a triumph of Slovak films is truly exceptional, and evidence of the trend started in the previous period when we already recorded the success of some genre films (The Red Captain/Červený kapitán). It is quite natural that audience success does not always equate with success with film critics and it is not our Report’s objective to assess artistic quality; however, at least two of the aforementioned films also had higher ambitions, not just to attract mass audiences to the cinemas.

In 2017, the success of audience films was matched by the success of artistically far more ambitious films at the largest world festivals. These were mostly dramas with the motif of a dysfunctional family or a family falling apart. Filthy (Špina) was premièred in Rotterdam, Little Harbour (Piata lod’) won the main prize in the Generation Kplus competition at the Berlinale, Out was screened as the very first Slovak film in history in the Un Certain Regard section in Cannes, Nina was presented in Karlovy Vary and in Toronto and, to complete the list of successful Slovak films, the Best Director Award for The Line in Karlovy Vary is also a great success.

I dare say that such a successful year as 2017 will not be repeated very soon, so let us enjoy the success.

At the same time, we are also witnessing negative trends: for several successive years neither data on the sales of media, nor on the results of Slovak VOD operators have been available; these entities do not publish the respective data. On the other hand, we are witnessing an increasing trend in illegal downloads. Our Office, together with the Union of Slovak Film Distributors and the Association of Cinema Operators, tasked the specialised company MUSO in London with an analysis of the situation in Slovakia in 2016 and the result was really shocking: over 238 million illegal downloads (all films were included in the total number, not just Slovak films, and also all viewings – streaming, as well as web and torrent downloads). This represents really alarming information, especially for distributors, and also for the cinemas, but above all for the Ministry of Culture, which may initiate the adoption of appropriate legislation impeding piracy.

LEGISLATION

- By Government Resolution No. 19 of 11 January 2017, the Slovak Government approved the conclusion of the Council of Europe Convention on Cinematographic Co-Production (revised) by the Slovak Republic, with the exception of ratification. The Council of Europe Convention on Cinematographic Co-Production (revised) is a reaction to the changes in film production brought about by the last 25 years. New technologies have altered production, distribution and screening methods and significant developments have been recorded in the area of financial support for audiovisual at both national and regional levels. The Convention is a revised version of the European Convention on Cinematographic Co-Production adopted on 2 October 1992, which has been valid for the Slovak Republic from 1 May 1995. The revised Convention defines as a film “any work of any length and on any medium, in particular a feature, animated and documentary film, which complies with the provisions relating to the film industry in force in each of the contracting parties concerned and which is to be screened in cinemas”.
- Representatives of ten countries – The Netherlands, Greece, Luxembourg, Malta, Norway, Portugal, Serbia, Slovakia, Slovenia, Italy – signed the Convention on 30 January 2017 over the course of the Rotterdam IFF.
- The Slovak National Council expressed its consent to the Convention by Resolution No. 615 of 10 May 2017 and, at the same time, declared it to be an international agreement taking precedence over the law; the President of the Slovak Republic ratified the Convention on 19 June 2017. The Deed of Ratification of the Slovak Republic was lodged with the depository who is the Secretary General of the Council of Europe. The Convention entered into force on 1 October 2017 in accordance with Art. 19 par. 1 and on this day, it also entered into effect for the Slovak Republic.
- On 13 January 2016 the Slovak Government approved the draft update of the Systematic Restoration of the Slovak Audiovisual Heritage Project for 2016–2018. The main objective of the Project is the systematic protection and gradual restoration of the audiovisual heritage, as well as rendering it subsequently accessible to the public. The restoration systematics include several phases (stock-taking, diagnostics, preservation/treatment, restoration, digitisation of film materials and rendering them accessible) which gradually overlap for the individual audiovisual works and the accompanying documents related to the production, distribution or presentation of audiovisual works in public. Ensuring its institutional, staffing, technological, technical and financial demands is also an essential part of the Project. With regard to the ongoing development of the audiovisual heritage, the need to financially ensure the related activities performed by the Slovak Film Institute, as well as the fact that the Project update approved by the Slovak Government in 2013 contained specific tasks for the entities involved only up to 2015, it was necessary to prepare an update of the Project for the following period, i.e. for 2016 – 2018.
- On 1 July 2017, Act No. 138/2017 on the Fund for the Support of the Culture of National Minorities and the Amendments and Supplements to some other Acts entered into effect, with the exceptions of Art. II, III and Art. V par. 6, 13 and 19 which entered into effect on 1 January 2018. Article V of the above Act amended Act No. 516/2008 on the Audiovisual Fund and on the Amendments and Supplements to some other Acts as amended. This amendment reacted to several requirements from application practice and it was also based on the need to stabilise the contribution from the national budget for the support of the audiovisual culture for the purpose of its further development in the Slovak Republic. The Act stipulated the minimum contribution from the national budget for the support of the audiovisual culture to be EUR 6,000,000 per year. This systemic measure takes into account the state’s interest and role in the support of the audiovisual culture, and it should contribute to its continual development.
- On 1 August 2017, Decree No. 193/2017 of the Ministry of Culture of the Slovak Republic, amending Decree No. 165/2014 of the Ministry of Culture of the Slovak Republic on the Film Project, entered into effect. In order to increase the competitiveness of Slovakia in the area of film industry support, the amendment to the Decree decreased the universal amount of eligible expenditures from the previous EUR 2,000,000 to:
  - EUR 300,000 if it is a film project consisting of two or three individual audiovisual works at least 70 minutes long or if it is a multi-episode feature audiovisual work (series, season, cycle) intended primarily for television broadcasting with no more than 13 episodes, whereof one episode is at least 40 minutes long;
  - EUR 150,000 if it is a film project consisting of one individual audiovisual work at least 70 minutes long or if it is a multi-episode documentary or animated audiovisual work with no more than 13 episodes and each episode being at least 5 minutes long.
- At the same time, the minimum amount of eligible expenditures must not exceed 50% of the total budget for the production of the project.
- Each film project contending for support must meet the content requirements; these are construed as the content of the audiovisual work being in accordance with the respective laws and regulations (this is confirmed by the cultural text or co-production status issued by an authorised person), the law and order of the Slovak Republic, not being of a pornographic nature and neither approving violence, nor openly insulting human dignity.
- The basic requirement that the producer of the audiovisual work invest the minimal amount of funds, which are not to be public funds, in Slovakia, still forms the basis of the support system in question. This amount must consist of eligible expenditures which represent payments for goods or services to a person who has the official seat or place of business in the territory of Slovakia and who is registered in Slovakia with the tax administrator, or the payment of remuneration or salary to a natural person, if such a remuneration or salary is taxed in Slovakia.

FILM EDUCATION

- The current youngest generation has the opportunity to develop its creative potential at a number of schools: at Ludovít Rajter’s Elementary School of Art (www.zussklenarova.sk), Ján Albrecht’s Elementary School of Art (www.zusjanaalbrechta.eu), the Private Secondary Technical School of Animation (www.uat.sk) in Bratislava, the Private Elementary School of Art DAMA (www.sszsvba.sk) in Prešov and the Private Secondary School of Film Art (www.zsssvba.sk) in Košice. The Secondary School of Scenic Graphic Arts (www.zsssvba.sk) in Bratislava offers four courses – animation, cinematography, sound, editing, costume design and scenic graphic arts, the Secondary School of Art in Trenčín (www.susstn.sk) and the Private Secondary School of Art in Zvolen (www.ssuszy.sk) offer a course in animation, and the Private Secondary School of Design (www.skoladesignu.sk) in Bratislava offers three-year higher technical education courses in Film and Media Production and Animation.

– Although there are currently several university-level schools of Art in Slovakia, the teaching of audiovisual art in them has so far only been marginal – for instance, the Faculty of Mass Media Communications at the University of Ss. Cyril and Methodius in Trnava (www.fmk.sk), the Department of Intermedia at the Academy of Fine Arts in Bratislava (www.vsvu.sk), and the Department of Fine Arts and Intermedia at the Faculty of Arts of the Technical University (www.fu.tuke.sk) in Košice. The Academy of Filmmaking and Multimedia (www.vsftam.sk) in Bratislava offers a non-accredited but certified educational programme which does not replace the Bachelor’s Degree course and does not confer an academic title, although its graduates are capable of resolving practical animation, graphical-artistic tasks in the film, advertising and designing industries.

– Students of the Academy of Arts in Banská Bystrica can study at two faculties. The Faculty of Fine Arts (fvu aku.sk) has the Department of Intermedia and Digital Media. Students can take courses in Theatre Art, and Film Art and Multimedia at the Faculty of Dramatic Arts (fdru.aku.sk). Mgr. art. Lubomír Vladimír Vluda ArtD. is Head of the Department of Documentary Film and PhD Dr. Kateřina Javorská is Head of the Department of Film Dramaturgy and Screenwriting. In the 2017/2018 academic year, 28 students studied in the Bachelor's and Master's programmes in Documentary Film, and 30 students studied in the Bachelor's programme in Film Dramaturgy and Screenwriting. In 2017, students at the Department of Documentary Film made 14 bachelor's and graduation films (36 films in 2016).

– However, the Film and Television Faculty of the Academy of Performing Arts (www.vsftam.sk – subsequently referred to as “FTF VŠMU”) in Bratislava continues to be responsible for providing the major part of the preparation of new filmmakers and producers. FTF VŠMU is a member of the International Association of Film and Television Schools, a worldwide organisation, CILECT, and also its European section, GEECT. Prof. Ondrej Šulaj has been the Dean of the Faculty since 1 October 2014. Currently, the following study programmes are available:

– Study Programme 2.2.5. Film Art and Multimedia: Screenwriting and Directing of Documentary and Feature Films (Bachelor's, Master's and ArtD. degrees); guaranteed by the Screenwriting Studio – Film Screenwriting study plan (Head of Studio: Ass. Prof. Alena Bodingerová, ArtD.); Film and Television Directing Studio – Feature Film Directing study plan (Head of Studio: Mgr. art. Róbert Šveda, ArtD.); Documentary Studio – Documentary Film Directing study plan (Head of Studio: Prof. Ingrid Mayerová, ArtD.);

– Animation (Bachelor's, Master's and ArtD. degrees); guaranteed by the Animation Studio (Head of Studio: Ass. Prof. Eva Gubcová, ArtD.);

– Audiovisual Art Production (Bachelor's, Master's and ArtD. degrees); guaranteed by the Production and Distribution Department (Head of Department: Ass. Prof. Ján Oparty ArtD.);

– Cinematography and Visual Effects (Bachelor's, Master's and ArtD. degrees); guaranteed by the Cinematography Studio – Cinematography study plan (Head of Studio: Prof. Ján Duriš, ArtD.); – Editing and Sound Design (Bachelor's, Master's and ArtD. degrees); guaranteed by the Editing Studio – Editing study plan (Head of Studio: Prof. Darina Smržová, ArtD.);

– Study Programme 2.1.20 Film Art and Multimedia History and Theory:

– Audiovisual Studies (Bachelor's, Master's and ArtD. degrees); guaranteed by the Audiovisual Studies Department (Head of Department: Ass. Prof. Kateřina Mišková, PhD.).

– As at 31 October 2017, there were 286 students at FTV VŠMU, 8 of whom were foreign students. There were 167 students in the Bachelor's, 104 in the Master's and 15 in the post-graduate programmes (of whom 5 were external students). In the 2016/2017 academic year, 100 students graduated from FTV VŠMU (51 Bachelors, 40 Masters and 9 Doctors of Art). In the 2016/2017 academic year, 27 film projects were completed at FTV VŠMU.

– Also, in 2017, FTV VŠMU co-organised several workshops, masterclasses and series of lectures, such as:

Masterclass of film theoretician and historian Thomas Elsaesser within the “Increasing the Attractiveness and Competitiveness of VŠMU in the International Context via Internationalisation” project, FTV VŠMU Bratislava, Slovakia, 2 October 2017 (co-organised by: VŠMU Bratislava, the Slovak Film Institute, Goethe Institute, Bratislava);

Masterclass of film theoretician and historian Richard Nowell within the “Increasing the Attractiveness and Competitiveness of VŠMU in the International Context via Internationalisation” project, FTV VŠMU Bratislava, Slovakia, 30 November 2017;

Masterclasses with Bea de Visser, Vít Janeček, Martin Čihák and Foley Effects workshops within the 2017 Čako Student Film Festival.

– In 2017, the 21st Student Film Festival Čako 2017 was held. Films made by FTV VŠMU students took all the main awards. Atlantis, 2003 (Atlantída, 2003, SK/CZ, 2017, dir. Michal Blaško) won the most awards – the SAPA Award for Best Film (producers Jakub Brychta, Veronika Jelšíková), the LITA Award for Best Director (Michal Blaško), the Literary Fund Award for Best Script (Michal Blaško) and the Studio 727 Award for Best Cinematographer (Adam Mach ex aequo with Anna Smoroňová for China (China, SK, 2016, dir. Gregor Valentović)). Dušan
REPORT ON THE SLOVAK AUDIOVISUAL SITUATION IN 2017

Varmeda won the Traco Systems Award for Best Editing for Magic Moments (Magic Moments, SK, 2017, dir. Martina Buchelová), Samuel Škubla the Sound’s Good Award for Best Sound for China and Kristýna Valocá the Critics’ Choice Award for The Most Beautiful Corner (Najkrajší kút, SK, 2017). The Special Jury Awards went to: Maja Brmušáková the Best Documentary Award for Denisa, The Story of a Friend (Denisa, príbeh kamarátky, SK, 2017), Special Jury Award: Martina Buchelová (Magic Moments), Special Mention: Lucia Kašová (43 Years of Bratislava Metro / 43 rokov bratislavského metra). Atlantis, 2003 won the Audience Award with the highest number of votes. All in all, films made by FTF VŠMU students won 29 awards in 2017 – 12 abroad and 17 at domestic festivals. The mid-length Atlantis, 2003 was most lauded; for instance, it won the Best Short Film Award at the 27th Film Festival Cottbus, Germany, the Best Script Award and Student Jury Award at the 40th Poitiers Film Festival, France and the documentary About My Sister (O sestre, SK, 2016, dir. Barbora Sliepková) won in the documentary film category at the 17th International Film Schools Festival in Montevideo, Uruguay and at the 4th First Step International Student Film Festival in Tirana, Albania.

For further awards, refer to AWARDS FOR SLOVAK FILMS AND FILMMAKERS ABROAD.

The Slovak Audiovisual Fund (AVF) provides significant support to the production of students’ films. In 2017, the AVF supported 17 film projects with a total of EUR 50,000 (in 2016, it was 19 film projects with EUR 56,400). The 21st Student Film Festival Ľačko, the presentation of Atlantis, 2003 in the Cinéfondation Section at the 70th Cannes IFF and Magic Moments at the international short film competition at the 42nd Toronto IFF were also subsidised by the AVF, as well as the publication of The Theory of a Music Recording (Teória hudobnej nahrávky) and the production of a 2-DVD Images of (Against) Extremism (Obrazy proti extrémizmu) which will contain 16 short, mainly non-fiction films – 8 made by VŠMU and 8 from the Slovak Film Institute archive; these will be paired into 8 serious social themes.

The research project Oral History has focused on the collection and analysis of memories of Slovak film professionals with the participation of FTF VŠMU students and teachers since 2012, and it continues under the title ONLINE LEXICON OF SLOVAK FILMMAKERS (Online lexikón slovenských filmových tvorcov) – supplementation of the history of Slovak cinema via oral history methods.

Film science students at FTF VŠMU prepare the Frame magazine which has been part of the professionally reviewed journal for science on film and moving images Kino-Ikon since 2003. FTF VŠMU also operated the Klap Cinéma which was digitised by D-Cinema technology with a 4K projector and DD 7.1 sound processor.

Ján Albrecht’s Elementary School of Art organises the national audiovisual and multimedia competition, Golden Clapperboard; awards were presented for the fifth time in the competition in 2017, this time in fifteen categories.

For further awards of student films, refer to AWARDS FOR SLOVAK FILMS AND FILMMAKERS IN SLOVAKIA and AWARDS FOR SLOVAK FILMS AND FILMMAKERS ABROAD.

FILM PRODUCTION

Since 2012, more than twenty full-length films for theatrical release have been made annually in Slovakia. In 2017, twenty-seven were made, six of them with a 100% Slovak share, and these were augmented by six majority and fourteen minority co-productions. In one case, the share of costs of Slovakia and the co-production country was 50/50. After thirteen directorial débuts in 2016, one year later only four first full-length films for theatrical release were made. However, one of them was an omnibus film hence there were six directors who made their débuts (Maroš Berák, Enrik Bistika, Vilo Csino, Vít Karas, György Kristóf and Slavomír Zrebný). In 2017, the domestic production again brought not only quality but also a greater diversity of genres and drew almost 1.5 million viewers to cinemas!

Of the 21 feature films (12 in 2016), four were 100% Slovak films: the prequel to the favourite TV sketch show Cuky Luku film (Cuky Luku film, SK, 2017, dir. Karel Janák), DOGG (DOGG, SK, 2017, dir. Slavomír Zrebný, Vilo Csino, Enrik Bistika, Jonáš Karásek) which in the course of four stories – Duet, Opus Dei, Grassvater and Game – treats with the emotion of anxiety, the atmosphere of bizarre and fear in its various forms; the family musical comedy Spievankovo and Queen Harmonia (Spievankovo a králová Harmónia, SK, 2017, dir. Diana Novotná) and Kidnapping (Únos, SK, 2017, dir. Mariana Čengel Solčanská) based on the kidnapping of the President’s son which helped in the mobilisation of citizens for the annulment of the amnesties of the former Prime Minister Vladimír Mečiar related to this act.

Four feature films were made in majority co-productions: a thriller from the organised crime environment on the Slovak-Ukrainian border The Line (Čiara, SK/UA, 2017, dir. Peter Bebjak), the drama of a marriage falling apart from the perspective of a 12-year-old girl Nina (Nina, SK/CZ, 2017, dir. Juraj Lehotský), a drama about a 50-year-old man looking for a job in Eastern Europe Out (Out, SK/HU/CZ, 2017, dir. György Kristóf) and Little Harbour (Piata lod, SK/CZ, 2017, dir. Ivet Gröfova) which is an adaptation of Monika Kompaníková’s book and a lyrical depiction of family and maternal themes.

As many as twelve feature films (six in 2016) were made in minority co-productions: the story of the Russian poet Anna Barkova who spent 22 years of her life in Soviet gulags 8 Heads of Madness (8 hlav šílenství, CZ/SK, 2017, dir. Marta Nováková) which was not released in cinemas in Slovakia but only issued on DVD, a drama from the environment of winter swimmers about the search for love and a new meaning of life Ice Mother (Bába z ledu, CZ/FR/SK, 2017, dir.
Bohdan Sláma), a thriller from the Polish-Czech border region Spoor (Pokot, PL/DE/SE/CZ/SK, 2017, dir. Agnieszka Holland, Kasia Adamik) with an older, energetic and eccentric teacher of English language and lover and protector of animals as the heroine, a historic road-move inspired by Jaroslav Vrchlický’s poem, set at the culmination of the Middle Ages Little Crusader (Křižáček, CZ/SK, 2017, dir. Václav Kadmka), the dramatic story of three Slovak Roma in Brussels The Flower Shop (La fleurière, BE/SK, 2017, dir. Ruben Desiere), a film taking place during the Protectorate and completing the tetralogy by Jan and Zdeněk Svěrák about one generation Barefoot (Po strmišti bos, CZ/DK/SK, 2017, dir. Jan Svěrák), the dramatic story of a 40-year-old woman who suddenly leaves her family in Berlin to start a new life in Bratislava Freedom (Freiheit, DE/SK, dir. Jan Speckenbach), Filthy (Špina, CZ/SK, 2017, dir. Tereza Nvotová) – a film about what rape means to a woman, how it changes her view of herself and of the surrounding world, the Christmas fairy tale The Third Wish (Přání k mání, C /SK, 2017, dir. Vít Karas) and the trilogy of director Jan Hřebejk and screenwriter Petr Jarchovský Garden Store (Zahradnictví, CZ/SK/PL, 2017) which is a prequel to the successful Cosy Dens (Pelišky, CZ, 1999, dir. Jan Hřebejk), the individual parts of which, The Family Friend (Rodiný přítel), Deserter (Dezertér) and Suitor (Nápadník) take place between 1939 and 1959. The romantic comedy All or Nothing (Všetko alebo nič, SK/CZ, 2017, dir. Marta Ferencová) was made as a parity co-production.

- In 2017, six full-length cinema documentaries (twelve in 2016) were also made. The window into the world of traditional Roma music Heavy Heart (Tažká duša, SK 2017, dir. Marek Šulík) and the evocation of the rise and fall of Slovak mountaineering in the Himalayas Addicted to Altitude (Vábenie výšok, SK, 2017, dir. Pavol Barabáš) were made as 100% Slovak films. They were complemented by two majority co-productions – a film about the first post-revolution Minister of the Interior and three-times Prime Minister who fundamentally influenced the modern history of Slovakia The Lust for Power (Mečiar, SK/CZ, 2017, dir. Tereza Nvotová) and a film about the sighting of UFOs in Central Slovakia and covert connections between the earthly elites and exotic races from other worlds Grey Lizard Conspiracy (Spisahanie šedej rasy, SK/CZ, 2017, dir. Maroš Berák), and two minority co-productions – a film about the world-renowned opera singer and actress and about the destinies imposed on her and her family by the history of Europe in the 20th century Červená (Červená, CZ/SK, 2017, dir. Olga Sommerová) and the film portrait of an authentic Czech neo-Nazi The White World According to Daliborek (Svět podle Daliborka, CZ/SK/GB, 2017, dir. Vít Klusák).

- Two full-length films that were not released into distribution were also made – the time-lapse documentary about the walls in and around us The Wall (Můr, SK, 2017, dir. Magda Kmeťková, Roman Hraník) and the documentary about bands and singers in Prešov Bars Good Movie (Bars dobrý film, SK, 2017, dir. Ján Stračina).

- The full-length intimate view behind the closed doors of Slovak maternity wards Before I Met You (Medzi nami, IT, 2016, dir. Zuzana Límová) provoked a public discussion; however, it was made in a 100% Italian production.

- Radio and Television of Slovakia also had a part in the production of 15 full-length cinema films – 13 feature films and 2 documentaries. It continues to be the biggest producer in the area of documentary production, whether on its own or in collaboration with independent producers (refer to the chapter on TELEVISION). You can find a list of the awards presented to the above and other films in the chapters AWARDS FOR SLOVAK FILMS AND FILMMAKERS IN SLOVAKIA and AWARDS FOR SLOVAK FILMS AND FILMMAKERS ABROAD.

Note: The share of Slovakia in Spoor was just 2.51% but the film was supported by the AVF, hence under the terms of the Audiovisual Act it is Slovak.
SLOVAK AUDIOVISUAL FUND

- The Slovak Audiovisual Fund (AVF, www.avf.sk) has provided support since 2010. As an independent public institution established by a separate Act, it is the main source of financial support for audiovision in the Slovak Republic. Its aim is to support all parts of the filmmaking, film production and distribution process, film festivals, education, research, publication activities and technological development, particularly in the area of cinema digitisation. The financial sources of the Fund consist of a contribution from the national budget and contributions from entities which use audiovisual works in their business activities: the broadcaster of the television programme service in the public interest (5% of revenues from advertisements), private television broadcasters (2% of revenues from advertisements), cinemas (1% of the price of each ticket sold), distributors of audiovisual works (1% of revenues from distribution outside of cinemas), retransmission operators (1% of retransmission revenues), and operators of the audiovisual on-demand media service (0.5% of revenues for provision of the service).
- Under the law, the AVF support activities are divided into two independent parts: support for audiovisual culture (grants, scholarships and loans) and support for audiovisual industry (grants of 20% of non-state funds invested in the Slovak Republic in the production of film projects and works for TV broadcasting). Support for audiovisual culture has been available in the AVF since it was established; the AVF supported the first project in the audiovisual industry in 2016.
- On 1 July 2017 Act No. 138/2017 on the Fund for the Support of the Culture of National Minorities and the Amendments and Supplements to some other Acts entered into effect, with the exception of Art. II, Art. III and Art. V par. 6, 13 and 19 which entered into effect on 1 January 2018. Article V of the above Act amended Act No. 516/2008 on the Audiovisual Fund and on the Amendments and Supplements to some other Acts as amended. This amendment acted in response to several requirements from application practice and it was also based on the need to stabilise the contribution from the national budget for the support of the audiovisual culture for the purpose of its further development in the Slovak Republic. The Act stipulated the minimum contribution from the national budget for the support of the audiovisual culture to be EUR 6,000,000 per year. This systemic measure takes into account the state’s interest and role in the support of the audiovisual culture, and its recognition of the need to contribute to its ongoing development.
- On 1 August 2017, Decree No. 193/2017 of the Ministry of Culture of the Slovak Republic, amending Decree No. 165/2014 of the Ministry of Culture of the Slovak Republic on the Film Project, entered into effect. In order to increase the competitiveness of Slovakia in the area of film industry support, the amendment to the Decree decreased the universal amount of eligible expenditures.
- (More information can be found in the chapter on LEGISLATION)

- In addition to this stabilisation of the financing of the Fund’s support activities, the amendment also brings about two further substantial groups of changes. The first is an optimisation of processes in the support activities themselves and the second is an extension of the Fund’s scope of activities – it should not only provide support activities but also promote audiovision in Slovakia and abroad. At the same time, the Fund should also collate, process and provide basic information from audiovision (a database of Slovakia as a “film country”) and also have the opportunity to provide services related to the presentation and promotion of audiovisual culture and industry. The extension of the Fund’s activities will also provide other services via educational activities, methodological-counselling activities and mediation activities. These new activities should become the basis for the establishment of the Slovak Film Commission which Slovak audiovision is notably lacking. Most of the amendments to the Act on the Audiovisual Fund entered into effect on 1 July 2017 with the exception of provisions related to the financing of the Fund’s support activities (administrative fees and contributions to the Fund) which entered into effect on 1 January 2018.
- At its meeting on 25 July 2017, the Slovak Audiovisual Fund Board approved the proposal to complement AVF’s Internal Regulation No. 10/2009 Principles for the Provision of Funds. The amendments to this Internal Regulation are based on the new state aid scheme for Programmes 1 and 2 of the Fund’s support activities and also follow up the amendment to the Act on the Audiovisual Fund effective from 1 July 2017.
- In 2017, the AVF allocated EUR 132,400 more for the support of audiovisual culture than in the previous year (EUR 7,566,088 in 2017 and EUR 7,433,688 in 2016), which represents a year-on-year increase of 1.78%. Over the course of eight years, the AVF has supported 2,849 applications for the support of audiovisual culture with EUR 65,259,442 in total.
- The figure for 2017 is the total amount of funds based on contracts concluded with the applicants and provided from the Fund’s means based on the budget breakdown for 2017. Based on the recommendations of expert commissions and the decisions taken, in 2017 applications were supported with EUR 12,277,088 in total.
- As for the above figures, it must be stated that in 2017 the Slovak Audiovisual Fund started to apply a procedure for multi-annual projects such that the decision on the total amount of support is taken in the respective financial year; however, this total amount is then allocated over the course of several financial years. The figures given in the table on page 13 for 2017 include information on the total amount of support resulting from the decisions taken.
- In addition, thanks to the AVF’s support, the production of audiovisual works, including students’ works, is increasing and the distribution domain is growing and stabilising, the promotion of domestic works at home and abroad is improving and, with the increasing experience, the ability of the individual entities to enter international co-productions is also enhanced.
- In 2017, 523 applications were submitted for the support of audiovisual culture. The number of applications supported in audiovisual culture was approximately the same as in the previous year. In 2017, the AVF supported 350 applications (354 in 2016). The share of supported applications in the total number of applications submitted increased from 59.60% in 2016 to 66.92%. The statistics for 2017 present the situation as at 10 April 2018.

- In 2017, the AVF supported three applications for digitisation by D-Cinema technology – Outdoor Cinema in Komárno, Palo Bielik’s Amphitheatre in Banská Bystrica, the amphitheatre in Nové Zámky and the replacement of the server in screening room K1 of Cinema Lumière in Bratislava – with a total amount of EUR 91,000.

- In 2017, no application was submitted for cinema digitisation with the less expensive E-Cinema HD digital technology.

- Ten applications were supported within Sub-programme 4.3 Modernisation of Equipment in Digitised Single-Screen Cinemas – Akademik Banská Štiavnica, Cinema Lumière Bratislava, Tatra Komárno, Mier Modra, Poľana Hriňová, Fontána Piešťany, Tatar Poprad, Orbis Rimanská Sobotka, ArtKino Metro Trenčín, Mier Trstená – with a total amount of EUR 121,200.

- The new Sub-programme 2.3 Support for Attendance of Slovak Cinematographic Works has been part of the Structure of Support Activities since 2015 within Programme 2 – Support for Distribution and Other Presentation of Audiovisual Works to the Public. The aim of the Sub-programme is to contribute to an increase in attendances at public screenings of Slovak cinematographic works in cinemas across Slovakia. In 2017, the Fund disbursed in Sub-programme 2.3 Support for Attendance of Slovak Cinematographic Works a total of EUR 188,048. In this way, the Fund supported 33 cinemas with a subsidy of EUR 1 per ticket for a Slovak film sold, including minority co-productions. In 2016, the AVF supported 38 cinemas in this Sub-programme with a total amount of EUR 217,488.

- (More details in the chapter on CINEMAS.)

- Within Sub-programme 4.4. Development of Technologies for the Production of Audiovisual Works in the Slovak Republic, Filmpark Production received support for the development of the Vision software and KONDRETA Furniture for the development of the Autojib equipment – in all EUR 25,000.

- Programme 5. Support for the Audiovisual Industry in the Slovak Republic was added to the AVF support system on 1 July 2015. In 2017, changes were made in this Programme, in particular in relation to the mandatory eligible expenditures limit that the applicant for funds has to invest in a project in Slovakia. This limit was reduced from the original amount of EUR 2 million to EUR 300,000 for feature TV series or a “package” of feature films and to EUR 150,000 for all other projects (individual films, documentaries or animated series). At the same time, in 2017, the Fund registered 12 new projects in this Programme that should be made in Slovakia in 2018 and 2019 with an anticipated amount of investments of EUR 8.5 million. Feature films The General (Generál, SK/CZ/IT/FR/RU) made by JMB Film & TV Production Bratislava, Let There Be Light (Nech je svetlo, SK/CZ, dir. Marko Škop) made by Artilleria, Happy Animal (Šťastné zviera, SK, dir. LITERARY FUND

- The mission of the Literary Fund (LF, www.litfond.sk) is to support the development of artistic, scientific and technical literature, journalistic and creative activities in the area of theatre, film, radio and television. In 2017, the Committee of the Section for Creative Work in Television, Film and Video supported, by way of the ALFA Programme, the production of new, original literary works which could form the basis of feature, documentary and animated films.
- The Section Committee also evaluated film and television productions made in 2016 and rewarded eight successful filmmakers via the Igric Awards and Literary Fund Premiums with a total amount of EUR 6,900 and 18 Slovak filmmakers with EUR 5,800 at international festivals, such as Cinematik Piešťany – Cinematik.doc Award, Mountains and City – LF Award for innovative approach to the topic, Student Film Festival ÁČKO – LF Awards for best individual performances in feature, documentary and animated film (for more information about the awards, refer to NATIONAL FESTIVALS AND REVIEWS and to the Literary Fund website). The Literary Fund also made contributions to costs for creative journeys in Slovakia and abroad, and provided rewards for performing artists celebrating an anniversary in 2017. Even those performing artists who are no longer of a productive age were not forgotten, with support provided to those who found themselves in a difficult financial situation due to illness, old age or for other objective reasons.
- In 2017, the Section Committee had a budget of EUR 135,000, and provided EUR 134,156.58 by 31 December 2017 from the budget for care for creative staff and artists. Almost half of this amount (EUR 61,200) was paid to 53 people in the form of creative scholarships.

MEDIA Sub-programme

- As of 1 January 2014 the MEDIA Programme became a sub-programme of the Creative Europe Programme (merging with the Culture Programme under the Creative Europe umbrella) and the same held true for the MEDIA Desk Slovakia office which (merging with the Cultural Contact Point office) was transformed into the Creative Europe Desk in 2014.
- In 2017, in compliance with the approved action plan and within the allocated budget, Creative Europe Desk Slovakia continued to fulfil its fundamental tasks: to provide information on the MEDIA Sub-programme to all interested parties and to consult with applicants seeking a grant from the Sub-programme; it also performed activities directed towards improving the integration of Slovak audiovisual professionals within Europe. The effects of the MEDIA Sub-programme on Slovak audiovision may be assessed by the amount of support allocated to Slovakia from the Programme each year; however, perhaps the additional tools provided by the Sub-programme to create Slovak audiovision are of even more importance.
- Once again, we registered positive results for Slovak entities applying for funding from the Programme in 2017. The MEDIA Sub-programme supported Slovak applicants to the extent of EUR 884,909 within the following schemes: Support for Development – Single Projects: EUR 208,000, Distribution: Selective Support: EUR 74,000, Distribution: Automatic Support: EUR 376,061, Support for Training: EUR 61,424 and Support to Festivals: EUR 25,000.
- Indirect support within the Europa Cinemas network for the 25 Slovak cinemas associated in the network amounted to EUR 140,424.
- It is the second highest amount of support since the Slovak Republic became a member state of the programme.
- If we include the support granted to Slovak companies within the Culture Sub-programme (EUR 336,615), the total support granted to Slovak companies within the Creative Europe Programme in 2017 amounted to EUR 1,221,524.
- As has become a tradition, Creative Europe Desk - MEDIA published the Report on the Slovak Audiovisual Situation in 2016 with a summary of information on all important aspects of the state of the Slovak audiovisual industry (in Slovak and English, circulation – 500). As a priority, the Report is distributed to foreign companies, organisations and institutions.
- Creative Europe Desk Slovakia organised or co-organised several seminars, workshops and events; we have selected three of them:
  - On 11 and 12 September 2017, the seminar and workshop DOX IN VITRO in Piešťany (together with the European Documentary Network and IFF Cinematik Piešťany) with renowned European audiovisual professionals as tutors: Ove Rishøj Jensen, EDN/Denmark; Philippe Van Meerbeck, VRT, Flemish Radio & Television Network / Belgium; Friedrich Moser, producer, director and screenwriter of documentary films / Austria.
  - Creative Europe Desk Slovakia also co-organised (together with the Office of the Government and the Permanent Representation of the European Commission to the Slovak Republic) the Mini-festival of European Film 7x7; the Festival was held from 3 May to 21 June 2017 and over this period seven European films supported from the MEDIA Sub-programme were shown in seven Slovak cities. In all, 3,847 viewers watched the Festival films.

EURIMAGES

- Eurimages, the cinematographic fund of the Council of Europe, is the sole European fund supporting trans-national co-productions of full-length films. The fund has been operational since 1988 and Slovakia joined it on 15 April 1996. Prof. Zuzana Gindl-Tatárová represents Slovakia in Eurimages. At the year-end, Eurimages had 37 Member States out of the total number of 47 countries in the Council of Europe. Canada became an Associated Member on 13 March 2017.
- In 2017, the fund provided support amounting to EUR 22,172,535 to 83 feature films, 12 documentaries and one animated film. From its establishment in 1988 up to 31 December 2017, the fund had supported 1,912 European co-productions to the extent of EUR 562 million.
- In 2017, eleven Slovak projects applied for support from Eurimages and five of these applications were successful.
- The feature fairy tale The Magic Quill (Čertí brk, CZ/SK) by Czech director Marek Najbrt which is a minority co-production for Slovakia based on its share – 20.57% belongs to the Slovak company TRIGON PRODUCTION (co-producer Patrik Pašš) and 79.43% to the Czech company Punk Film (delegated producer On-dřej Beránek). The project with a total budget of EUR 2,211,144 received the requested support of EUR 250,000.
- The long-awaited project of Slovak director Mira Fornay Cook, Fuck, Kill (Žaby bez jazyka), a Czech-Slovak co-production with a Croatian contribution which is a minority co-production for Slovakia based on its share – 71.87% belongs to the Czech company Cineart TV Prague (delegated producer Viktor Schwarz in collaboration with the Croatian company Kinorama whose producer Ankica Juric Tilić did not achieve the determined co-production level of 10%) and 28.13% belongs to the Slovak company MIRAFOX (co-producer Juraj Buzalka). The project with a total budget of EUR 2,110,230 received support of EUR 138,000.
- The original majority feature project Let There Be Light (Nech je svetlo, SK/CZ), the second full-length fiction film by screenwriter and director Marko Škop is a majority co-production for Slovakia based on its share – 79.88% belongs to the Slovak company ARTILERIA, s.r.o. (delegated producer Ján Meliš) and 20.12% to the Czech company Negativ, s.r.o. (co-producer Petr Oukropec). The project with a total budget of EUR 782,212 received support of EUR 120,000.
- The Czech-Slovak-Latvian co-production My Unknown Soldier (Môj neznámy vojak), an experimental documentary project of Ukrainian director Anna Kryvenko, is a minority co-production for Slovakia based on its share – 24.20% belongs to the Slovak company Wandal Production s.r.o. (co-producer Wanda Adamík Hrycová), 27.25% to the Latvian company Baltic Pine Films (delegated producer Sergejs Serpuhovs) and 48.55% to the Czech company Bc. Michal Kráčmer (co-producer Michal Kráčmer). The project with a total budget of EUR 188,486 received support of EUR 37,000.
- In 2017, Slovakia’s contribution to the fund was EUR 156,694.
- In 2017, Slovak co-production projects received EUR 598,000.
- From the date that Slovakia acceded to Eurimages up to 31 December 2017, 43 projects were granted support; in these projects, Slovak production companies functioned as either the majority or minority co-producer.

CINEMA DISTRIBUTION

- In 2017, 6,692,871 viewers attended Slovak cinemas, which represents an 18.1% increase on 2016 (5,667,071 viewers). Over the whole period since Slovakia gained independence, only in 1993 did more viewers attend domestic cinemas. The gross box office takings increased by 18.91% year-on-year. Audiences paid a total of EUR 34,513,049 for tickets (EUR 29,023,501 in 2016) which is the highest amount since Slovakia became independent. Thereby, 20 million euro was first exceeded in 2014.
- However, 2017 was a record year not only in Slovakia but also in the European Union. According to preliminary information provided by the European Audiovisual Observatory (EAO), 1.29 billion viewers attended cinemas across the EU last year, which is the highest number since 2004.
- The largest year-on-year increase in the number of viewers within the EU was recorded in Slovakia, and across the whole of Europe only Turkey recorded a higher increase (22.1%). Slovakia also achieved the greatest year-on-year increase in gross box office takings in the EU.
- The number of film screenings also achieved a record figure in Slovakia in 2017. There were 191,773 screenings which represents a year-on-year increase of 2.54% (187,017 in 2016) and the highest number of screenings since Slovakia gained independence. The average attendance per screening increased by 15.17% – from 30.30 viewers in 2016 to 34.90. The average admission fee also increased by 4 cents from EUR 5.12 in 2016 to EUR 5.16 and the average attendance at a screening of a 100-percent Slovak film or majority co-production almost doubled, as it increased from 31.83 viewers in 2016 to 61.67 viewers in 2017. The feature films All or Nothing (Všetko alebo nič, SK/CZ, 2017, dir. Marta Ferencová – 79.34), Kidnapping (Únos, SK, 2017, dir. Mariana Čengel Solčanská – 78.48) and The Line (Čiara, SK/UA, 2017, dir. Peter Bebjak – 68.97) recorded the highest average attendances per screening. As for documentaries, the best attended was Abandoned Space (Opuštený vesmír, CZ/SK, 2015, dir. Peter Hledík), screened outside of the film release plan of the Union of Slovak Film Distributors, with an average attendance of 34.55 viewers per screening.
- In 2017, 266 new films, hence three fewer than in the previous year, were released in cinemas. The films were released in cinemas by eleven distribution companies and three Slovak films were distributed by the producers themselves –

In terms of gross box office takings, Continental Film ranked first (28.4% / 27.3% share of viewers); the company distributed the films of Warner Bros. and independent companies and also had four films in the TOP 10 – All or Nothing, The Line, Kidnapping and It (US, 2017, dir. Andrés Muschietti).

Forum Film ranked third in 2017 based on both indicators (13.4% share of viewers / 13.0% share of gross box office takings), even though its most successful film A Bad Moms Christmas (US, 2017, dir. Jon Lucas, Scott Moore) only finished in the 21st place.

For the first time since 2012, the best attended film in Slovak cinemas was not an animated film. In 2017, the film with the highest attendance figure was the domestic romantic comedy All or Nothing. Moreover, three more Slovak films were in the TOP 10, which will probably not be repeated so far again.

The crazy comedy Cuky Luky Film (Cuky Luky film, SK, 2017, dir. Karel Janáč) experienced the most successful opening weekend in 2017. It did not exceed the 2015 record of Minions (109,475 viewers), nevertheless, with 53,144 viewers, it beat the historically best opening weekend of a domestic film since Slovakia gained independence, which previously had belonged to the documentary 38 (SK, 2014, dir. Daniel Dangl, Lukáš Zedníkovič) with 49,314 viewers.

In 2017, a record 31 full-length Slovak and co-production films were released in cinemas and also two mid-length documentaries were in distribution – Hotel Sunrise (Hotel Úsvit, SK, 2016) by Mária Rumanová and Varga (SK/CZ, 2017) by Soňa Maletzová. Two short animated films were screened prior to the main films. 39 Weeks, 6 Days (39 týždňov, 6 dní, SK, 2017) made by directors Joanna Kožuch and Boris Šima prior to Little Harbour (Piata lóď, SK/CZ, 2017, dir. Ivetka Grófová) and Yellow (Žítá, SK, 2017) made by Ivana Šebestová prior to Out (SK/HU/CZ, 2017) by György Kristóf.

Peter Hledík – Barok Film the documentary Abandoned Space, Wide Road Films the second Slovak feature film made in the English language Detour on the Path to Perfect Illusion (Obchádzka na ceste k dokonalej ilúzi, SK, 2016, dir. Róbert Fiľo) and Reminiscencie the documentary The Professional Foreigner (Professionálna cudzinka, SK, 2016, dir. Anna Grusková).

The Association of Slovak Film Clubs had the highest number of premières (55), followed by CinemArt SK (44) and Film Europe Media Company (43).

As regards the number of viewers, according to the Union of Slovak Film Distributors, CinemArt SK was the most successful distribution company in 2017. The 1,838,964 viewers of their films constituted a 27.5% share in the total attendance. The company distributed, in particular, films of 20th Century Fox International, DreamWorks Animation, Paramount and Universal and it had four films in the TOP 10 – Despicable Me 3 (US, 2017, dir. Ken Daurio, Cinco Paul), The Boss Baby (US, 2017, dir. Tom McGrath), Fifty Shades Darker (US, 2017, dir. James Foley) and The Fate of the Furious (US/JP/FR/CA, 2017, dir. F. Gary Gray). The company had a 27.2% share of the gross box office receipts.

In terms of gross box office takings, Continental Film ranked first (28.4% / 27.3% share of viewers); the company distributed the films of Warner Bros. and independent companies and also had four films in the TOP 10 – All or Nothing, The Line, Kidnapping and It (US, 2017, dir. Andrés Muschietti).

Ivetka Grófová) and Yellow (Žítá, SK, 2017) made by Ivana Šebestová prior to Out (SK/HU/CZ, 2017) by György Kristóf.

The comedy All or Nothing with 340,535 viewers became the most successful film with audiences and the crime thriller The Line with gross box office takings of EUR 1,749,425 the most commercially successful film. It had 329,349 viewers and was thus ranked second in cinema attendances. The first foreign film Despicable Me 3 was ranked only third. Moreover, All or Nothing, The Line and two of last year’s domestic premières Kidnapping and Cuky Luky Film were among the ten most successful domestic films with audiences since the country became independent (see the current TOP 10 Slovakia 1993-2017 on the following pages 18–20).

- It is worth noting that, since Slovakia gained independence, only sixteen films have achieved gross box office takings of over one million euro, and one quarter of them have been domestic films.

- The Lust for Power (Mečiar, SK/CZ, 2017) by director Tereza Nvotová became the best-attended domestic documentary with 15,621 viewers. Her feature film Filthy (Špina, CZ/SK, 2017) with 50,517 viewers was the most successful minority co-production. However, Jan Hřebejk presented his three new films to Slovak audiences in 2017 – The Family Friend (Rodinný přítel, CZ/SK/PL, 2017), Deserter (Desertér, CZ/SK/PL, 2017) and Suitor (Nápadník, CZ/SK/PL, 2017) from the Garden Store (Zahradnictví) trilogy.

Slovak films were distributed to cinemas by ten distribution companies – the Association of Slovak Film Clubs was once again the most active among them with seven domestic premières – and three production companies (Peter Hledík – Barok Film, Reminiscencie and Wide Road Films) released their films directly into cinemas without collaborating with traditional distributors, outside of the release plan of the Union of Slovak Film Distributors.

- All Slovak films, including minority co-productions, were viewed by 1,430,504 people in 2017, representing a 21.37% share in the total attendance (6.61% in 2016). Thus, the attendance at domestic films exceeded one million viewers for the first time since the country gained independence and, compared with 2016, when 377,086 viewers visited cinemas to watch domestic films, it almost quadrupled. Slovakia is ranked seventh in the EU in this indicator. France and the United Kingdom had the highest and equal share of domestic films in the total attendance in the EU (37.4%). Outside of the EU, Turkey continues to dominate – in 2017, the share of domestic films in the total attendance was 56.5%.

- (For detailed results of films premières, refer to the table Distribution of Premières Slovak and Co-Production Films in 2017 on the following page).

- The figures include only data for members of the Union of Slovak Film Distributors.

- The 2017 data do not include attendances at the Bažant Cinematograph which attracted over 35,000 viewers to free screenings of Czech and Slovak films in 29 Slovak towns and cities; then there were a further 15,000 viewers who attended film evenings of the Bažant Cinematograph Summer Cinema at the Magio Beach in Bratislava, nor do they include the results of festival screenings of non-distribution titles (with the exception of Febiofest) or attendances at the increasingly popular alternative content (recordings of theatre, opera or ballet performances, concerts, sports broadcasts...).

- We can only guess how successful domestic films will be in 2018 as the first domestic première is planned for 1 March. That is when Martin Šulík’s new film The Interpreter (Timočník, SK/CZ/AT, 2018) with Jiří Menzel and the winner of the European Film Award Peter Simonischek in the title roles will be presented to audiences.

- VIDEODISTRIBUTION

- We have not received any data on the number of DVDs and Blu-rays (BDs) sold in Slovakia since 2012. Also, data on the media sold in the TOP 10 of the two largest DVD and BD distributors in Slovakia have been unavailable since 2016. However, for the first time, we are including information on the sales of UHDs. The Magnificent Seven (US, 2016, dir. Antoine Fuqua) was the first film in the 4K Ultra HD Blu-ray format in Slovakia. It was distributed from 25 January 2017. In 2017, Bontonfilm released 62 titles in all in the Slovak market and Magic Box Slovakia 37 titles. Film fans need a 4K Ultra HD TV set or projector designated not only cinema attendances but also DVD sales.

- Magic Box Slovakia’s TOP 10 bestselling UHDs

Once again, for the fourth consecutive year, a domestic film is among the TOP 10 bestselling titles of Magic Box Slovakia. The Line and All or Nothing thus dominated not only cinema attendances but also DVD sales.

1. All or Nothing (Všetko alebo nič, SK/CZ, 2017, dir. Marta Ferencová)
2. Fantastic Beasts and Where to Find Them (US, 2016, dir. David Yates)
3. The LEGO Batman Movie (US, 2017, dir. Chris McKay)
7. Storks (US, 2016, dir. Nicholas Stoller, Doug Sweetland)
10. Finding Dory (US, 2016, dir. Andrew Stanton)

- Magic Box Slovakia’s TOP 10 bestselling BDs

5. Rogue One: Star Wars Story (US, 2016, dir. Gareth Edwards) 2BD
6. We Were Soldiers (US/DE, 2002, dir. Randall Wallace)

- Magic Box Slovakia’s TOP 10 bestselling DVDs

3. The Secret Life of Pets (US, 2016, dir. Chris Renaud, Yarrow Cheney)
5. The LEGO Batman Movie (US, 2017, dir. Chris McKay)
8. The Mummy (US, 2017, dir. Alex Kurtzman)

- Bontonfilm’s TOP 10 bestselling DVDs

Two domestic titles were in the TOP 10 with The Line even being ranked first:

1. The Line (Čiara, SK/UA, 2017, dir. Peter Bebjak)
5. The Boss Baby (US, 2017, dir. Tom McGrath)
7. Sing (US, 2016, dir. Garth Jennings)

- Bontonfilm’s TOP 10 bestselling BDs

- include the same titles as the TOP 10 bestselling DVDs. Just two domestic titles – The Line and Kidnapping – were not released on BD and so they were replaced by other titles.

2. Trolls (US, 2016, dir. Anand Tucker)
5. Sing (US, 2016, dir. Garth Jennings)
8. Warcraft (US, 2016, dir. Duncan Jones)
9. The Secret Life of Pets (US, 2016, dir. Chris Renaud, Yarrow Cheney)

- Bontonfilm’s TOP 10 bestselling UHDs

2. The Magnificent Seven (US, 2016, dir. Antoine Fuqua)
3. Arrival (US, 2016, dir. Denis Villeneuve)
In 2017, 51 DVDs or BDs with Slovak and co-production audiovisual works were released. Of these, 33 DVDs and BDs contained full-length cinema films (in 2016, 56 DVDs or BDs with Slovak and co-production audiovisual works were released, of which 36 were full-length cinema films).

- The Slovak Film Institute (SFI) also continued making domestic productions available in 2017. The SFI released Forget Mozart (Zabudnite na Mozarta, CS, 1985, dir. Miloslav Luther) on DVD; and in collaboration with ALEF Film & Media Group the 2-DVD The Magical World of Animated Film (Čarovný svet animovaného filmu, SK, 2011, dir. Rudolf Urb, Marek Urban) containing 13 episodes of the eponymous TV documentary series – 1.

6. Transformers: The Last Knight (US, 2017, dir. Michael Bay) 3BD (UHD+BD+bonus disc)
8. Unforgiven (US, 1992, dir. Clint Eastwood)
10. The Accountant (US, 2016, dir. Gavin O’Connor)

- In 2017, 51 DVDs or BDs with Slovak and co-production audiovisual works were released. Of these, 33 DVDs and BDs contained full-length cinema films (in 2016, 56 DVDs or BDs with Slovak and co-production audiovisual works were released, of which 36 were full-length cinema films).

- The Slovak Film Institute (SFI) also continued making domestic productions available in 2017. The SFI released Forget Mozart (Zabudnite na Mozarta, CS, 1985, dir. Miloslav Luther) on DVD; and in collaboration with ALEF Film & Media Group the 2-DVD The Magical World of Animated Film (Čarovný svet animovaného filmu, SK, 2011, dir. Rudolf Urb, Marek Urban) containing 13 episodes of the eponymous TV documentary series – 1.

- Bontofilm provided the second largest number of domestic films on DVD. The company released ten films: a thriller from the organised crime environment at the Slovak-Ukrainian border The Line (Čiara, SK/UA, dir. Peter Bebjak), the sequel to the successful fairy tale An Angel of the Lord 2 (Anděl Páně 2, CZ/SK, 2016, dir. Jiří Strach) which was also released on BD, the drama about the search for love and a new purpose of life Ice Mother (Bába z ledu, CZ/FR/SK, 2017, dir. Bohdan Sláma), the romantic comedy Stuck with a Perfect Woman (Bezva ženšká na krku, CZ/SK, 2016, dir. Tomáš Hoffman) which was also released as part of a 3-DVD set with Czech comedies Men in Hope (Muži v naději, CZ, 2011, dir. Jiří Vejdělek) and Women in Temptation (Ženy v pokušení, CZ, 2010, dir. Jiří Vejdělek), the thriller from the Polish-Czech border Spoor (Pokot, PL/DE/SE/CZ/SK, 2017, dir. Agnieszka Holland, Kasia Adamik), the prequel to the stories of the favourite figures from the TV screen Cuky Luky Film (Cuky Luky film, SK, 2017, dir. Karel Janák), a film about the world-renowned opera singer and actress Červená (Červená, CZ/SK, 2017, dir. Olga Sommerová), the animated film Little from the Fish Shop (Malá z rybáry, CZ/SK/DE, 2015, dir. Jan Balej), Filthy (Špina, CZ/SK, 2017, dir. Tereza Nvotová) – a film about what rape means to a woman, and the first part of the Garden Store (Zahradníctví, CZ/SK/PL, 2017) trilogy entitled The Family Friend (Rodinný příbeh).

- Magic Box Slovakia was the third largest publisher of domestic production on DVD. The romantic comedy All or Nothing (Všetko alebo nič, SK/CZ, 2017, dir. Marta Ferencová) was the best attended film in Slovak cinemas and also the company’s bestselling DVD in 2017. The thriller Kidnapping (Únos, SK, 2017, dir. Mariana Čengel Solčanská) was also among the best attended films in cinemas. The company also issued the full-length animated film Oddsockeaters (Lichožrouti, CZ/SK/HR, 2016, dir. Galina Miklinová) and the animated series The Tots (Drobci, SK, 2016, dir. Vanda Rajmanová, Michal Struss) with 7 episodes: Show (Predstavenie), Trip (Výlet), Cake (Torta), Race (Preteky), Hike (Túra), Mystery (Záhada) and Playground (Ihrisko), the documentary road movie From Slovakia with Love (S tebou ma bavi Slovensko, SK, 2016, dir. Pavol Barabáš, Robert Šveda), a story taking place during the Protectorate and completing the trilogy by Jan and Zdeněk Svěrák Barefoot (Po smíšti bos, CZ/DK/SK, 2017, dir. Jan Svěrák) which was issued on DVD but also on a 2-BD with the black and white director’s cut on the second BD, and the biography of diplomat Jan Masaryk A Prominent Patient (Masaryk, SK/CZ, 2016, dir. Julius Ševčík) also on DVD and Blu-ray.

- AH production issued the road movie Stanko (SK, 2015, dir. Rasťo Boroš); Atelier.doc the documentary Steam on the River (Para nad riekou, SK/CZ, 2015, dir. Robert Kirchhoff) about three jazzmen (Laco Deczi, Lubomír Tamaškovič, Ján Jankeje) who defected from the occupied Czechoslovakia to the West; Hulapa film the adaptation of Monika Kompaníková’s book Little Harbour (Piata loď, SK/CZ, 2017, dir. Iveta Grófová) which was issued separately on DVD but also together with the book and soundtrack; K2 Studio the documentary about the rise and decline of Slovak mountaineering in the Himalayas Addicted to Altitude (Vábenie výšok, SK, 2017, dir. Pavol Barabáš); and the Institute of Musicology of the Slovak Academy of Sciences and Žudro issued the full-length documentary Smrteľný les, DE/SK, 2017) and 31 documentary videos about the link between mournful Roman songs and the destinies of the singers of these songs – is Two Slovak films were also issued on DVD in Poland. Agora issued another output of the eponymous ethno-musicological project.

- In 2017, only eight video rental stores were still in operation in Slovakia.
- In 2014, the Slovak Internet VoD portal Kinocola (www.kinocola.sk) came into operation; the production company Filmpark is behind this portal. It specialises in Slovak and Czech films. It has 22 fiction films, 17 documentary, 12 short films, 42 episodes of the documentary series GEN.sk (SK, 2008-2017, various directors), 6 episodes of the TV series Mountain Rescue Team (Záchranáři, SK/CZ, 2003, dir. Vladimír Michálek) and 13 episodes of the TV series Old Town Crime Tales (Kriminálka Staré mesto, SK/CZ, 2010-2013, dir. Ján Sebechlebský).

- The Association of Slovak Film Clubs has offered its Video on Demand service (www.asfkvod.sk) since June 2016. It had 16 titles on offer; more will gradually be added.

- Films can also be rented via digital television – e.g. Magio from T-Com and Fiber TV from Orange. Both offer an archive of the programmes broadcast. Magio offers a seven-day archive and Fiber TV a 31-day archive. CME launched the Voyage portal in 2011 in Slovakia. It is a video-on-demand platform available not only on PCs but also on selected TV sets, tablets, Blu-ray players and smart phones. In addition to films, Voyage also offers access to the archives of the TV channels Markíza, Doma and Dajto. The HBO GO service has been available since 2013; it offers HBO subscribers unlimited access to films, TV series and documentaries, in particular from HBO original productions, but also to the latest Hollywood blockbusters on PCs, mobile phones, tablets and TVs with Internet connection.

- Since 2011 in Slovakia it has also been possible to buy or rent films on iTunes. In January 2016, the American company Netflix arrived on the Slovak market and from mid-December 2016, the Prime Video service has been competing with Netflix. Amazon has made it available in over 200 countries across the world, including Slovakia.

> CINEMAS

- In 2017, 152 cinemas with 249 screens were in operation (in 2016, there were 145 cinemas with 241 screens). Of these, 97 were single-screen cinemas with 26,383 seats, 20 miniplexes (cinemas with 2 to 7 screens) with 80 screens and 12,385 seats, and 4 multiplexes (cinemas with 8 and more screens) with 40 screens and 6,821 seats, 21 open-air cinemas with 2,167 seats and 9 alternative spaces with 1,090 seats: Municipal Cultural Centre – FK Kassandra (Bánovce nad Bebravou), A4 – Space for Contemporary Culture (Bratislava), FK Kamel (Bratislava), Satori Stage (Bratislava), Klub Bombura (Brezno), FK Vasmacska-Jókai Theatre (Komárno), FK Priester (Lučenec), Cinema Pocity (Prešov), Stanica (Žilina) and the Drive-in Cinema Orava with 85 parking spaces.

- In addition, the IMAX cinema with a capacity of 472 viewers and IMAX 3D technology has been in operation in Bratislava since 2015, although it is not included in the official European statistics.

- In spring 2017, the digitised single-screen Cinema X in Stupava closed down. Visitors to 5 screens in 4 cinemas could enjoy the Dolby Atmos 3D sound – 2 screens in CINEMAX Bratislava and one screen each in Cinema City Aupark Bratslava, CINEMAX Arena Tmava and Mlyny Cinemas Nitra. The IMAX cinema also has immersive sound.

- As at 31 December 2017, 189 screens in 93 cinemas and 3 open-air cinemas were digitised with D-Cinema technology (185 screens in 90 cinemas and 3 open-air cinemas in 2016). In 100 digitised screens – of these, 36 in single-screen cinemas – 3D screening was even possible.
- As at 31 December 2017, 100% of screens in 24 multi-screen cinemas were digitised. Of the 97 single-screen cinemas in operation in 2017, 68.04% were modernisation of equipment of digitised single-screen cinemas – for details refer to the Table: Cinemas in Slovakia as at 31 December 2017.
- In 2010 – 2017, the Slovak Audiovisual Fund (AVF) granted support totalling EUR 2,374,490 for the digitisation of 79 cinemas and screening rooms with D-Cinema technology.
- While 15 screens in multi-screen cinemas were digitised with D-Cinema technology without AVF support, only eight of the almost one hundred single-screen cinemas managed to do so – Bánovce nad Bebravou, Bratislava (Klap), Dubnica nad Váhom (Lastovička), Martin (Moskva Cinema), Stropkov, Stupava, Šamorín (Tuli Cinema) and Ružomberok.
- The renovation of the amphitheatre in Košice was financed from funds earmarked for the 2013 European Capital of Culture projects.
- Those cinemas that have had digital technology in place for the longest time are already encountering technical problems and the necessity to re-digitise. In 2016, Kultúra Cinema in Ružomberok received support for digitalisation and others will follow.
- In 2013, the AVF also opened a new sub-programme enabling applicants to obtain a grant for cinema modernisation using the less expensive digital E-Cinema HD technology. Thanks to this, 23 digitisation applications were supported by the end of 2017: Pôtoň Theatre in Batóvce, cinemas Múzeum SNP in Banská Bystrica, Dom kultúry in Bošany, A4 in Bratislava, Film Club in Bytča, Diamant in Dudince, Poľana in Hriňová, Tabačka Cinema in Košice, Akropola in Kremnica, Družba in Margecany, Film Club and Mestská scéna Cinema in Martin, Tatra in Nitra, Ostražica in Nižná, cinema Nováky, Osveta in Očová, KaSS in Prievidza, Apollo Cinema in Rožňava, Jašík in Turzovka, Tatra in Vráble, Žilina-Záriečie Station, Cinematograph and Cinematograph 2 mobile open-air cinemas in Bratislava and the open-air cinema in Vranov nad Topľou. In all, in 2013 – 2017, the AVF granted support for the digitisation of 23 cinemas with E-Cinema HD technology totalling EUR 273,200 (EUR 11,878 per application on average). The Film Europe Cinema was digitised with E-Cinema technology without AVF support.
- As the applications of most of the cinemas interested in digitisation and having funds available were already supported in 2014, the sub-programme 4.3 Modernisation of Equipment of Digitised Single-Screen Cinemas was added to the AVF Development of Audiovisual Technologies Programme in Slovakia. In 2014 – 2017, 30 applications were supported with a total amount of EUR 509,750 (EUR 16,992 per application on average). Cinemas mainly used the funds for modifications to seating, floors and screens, but also for the ticket reservation system.
- In 2010 – 2017, the AVF granted support to Programme 4 Development of Audiovisual Technologies in the Slovak Republic totalling EUR 3,182,440. (For more details, refer to the chapter on the SLOVAK AUDIOVISUAL FUND.)
- The K3 screening room at Cinema Lumière with 36 seats is the only cinema in Slovakia which screens films predominantly from 35 mm copies, even in the era of digitisation. It is entitled Filmotheque – Study Screening Room of the Slovak Film Institute. Its programming is based on the rules determined by the International Federation of Film Archives (FIAF), of which the SFI has been a member since 2001.
- As regards open-air cinemas, only Paľo Bielik’s Amphitheatre in Banská Bystrica screens films from 35 mm copies; in 2016, the original 70 mm projectors were also put into operation here.
- As at 31 December 2017, there were 21 open-air cinemas (19 in 2016) in operation. In addition to the three open-air cinemas digitised with D-Cinema technology (Galanta, Košice, Trnava), films were also digitally screened in a further six open-air cinemas. The open-air cinemas in Krupina, Pezinok, Podhájska, Senec and Senica borrowed projectors from the local single-screen cinemas and in Trnovec from the Primáš Cinema in Myjava. A further 26 open-air cinemas (9 of them in Bratislava) screened films for free, so they are not included in the statistics. In 2017, two drive-in cinemas were in operation – Shopping Palace in Bratislava and Drive-in Cinema Orava in Námestovo where an admission fee was charged.
- As at 31 December 2017, a total of 25 cinemas in 18 cities (25 cinemas in 19 cities in 2016) formed part of the European cinema network, Europa Cinemas (2,806 screens in 1,126 cinemas in 680 cities in 43 countries). In 2017, X Cinema in Stupava dropped out of the Europa Cinemas network as it ceased operating, and Úsmev Cinema in Košice became a member of the network. And from 2016, Film Europe Cinema, Mládoš, Nostalgie and Cinema Lumière in Bratislava, cinemas in Liptovský Mikuláš (Nicolaus), Martin (Strojár), Piešťany (Fontána), Rimavská Sobota (Orbis), Ružomberok (Kultúra), Sered (Nova), Spišská Nová Ves (Mier), Trenčín (Artkino Metro) and CINEMAX miniplexes in Banská Bystrica, Bratislava, Dunajská Streda, Košice, Nitra, Poprad, Prešov, Skalica, Trenčín, Trnava (Aréna + MAX) and Žilina remained within the Europa Cinemas network.

Note: besides the 3 digitised open-air cinemas (Galanta, Košice, Trnava), 5 other open-air cinemas (Krupina, Pezinok, Podhájska, Senec, Senica) screened films using a digital projector borrowed from a traditional cinema in summer and Trnovec borrowed the projector from Myjava.
Film Clubs

- Film clubs in Slovakia are associated within the Association of Slovak Film Clubs (ASFK, www.asfk.sk). As of 31 December 2017, there were a total of 59 film clubs with 5,390 members (in 2016, there were 57 film clubs with 6,789 members). Most of the film clubs operate on the premises of conventional cinemas; 42 of them, i.e. 71.19% are in cinemas digitised with D-Cinema technology according to DCI standards.

- In 2017, 115,362 viewers attended screenings of art-house films in all cinemas in Slovakia (not solely in film clubs), which represents a year-on-year decline of 13.57%. After excluding the 6,547 viewers who came to see films at the Febiofest that are not ASFK distribution titles, but which the Union of Slovak Film Distributors (UFD) registers as ASFK films as the Association had purchased the rights to them, the number of viewers of club distribution films drops to 108,815.

- Best attended was the Film Club at Cinema Lumière where 30,024 viewers came to films distributed by the ASFK. In 2017, art-house films constituted 1.7% of the total attendance at Slovak cinemas (2.4% in 2016).

- The total attendance in Slovak cinemas in 2017 amounted to 6,692,871 viewers.

- The average admission fee was EUR 2.64 (EUR 2.34 in 2016) for art-house films in all cinemas. Just for comparison, the average admission fee in all cinemas was EUR 5.16 in 2017.

- The most important events organised by ASFK in 2017 included the touring showcase Project100–2017, the 24th International Film Festival Febiofest 2017 and the Film Cabinet for Kids.

- The 24th International Film Club Festival Febiofest was held on 2 – 8 March 2017 in several cinemas in Bratislava: Lumière, Klap, Mladosť, Foajé, Berlinka and Artkino za zrkadlom. It subsequently travelled from the capital to other Slovak cities from 4 March to 7 April. In all, 11,726 viewers saw 115 films in ten programme sections in eleven cities (Banská Bystrica, Bratislava, Levice, Kežmarok, Košice, Martin, Prešov, Prievidza, Trenčín, Tmava and, for the first time, in Poprad), in 17 cinemas, at 252 screenings.

- The laureates of the ASFK 2016 Annual Awards were announced at Febiofest for the ninth time. Iska in Kežmarok became the best film club. Freedom under Load (Sloboda pod nákladom, SK, 2016, dir. Pavol Barabáš) was named the best club film. The Romanian director Radu Jude received the ASFK Annual Award for his contribution to world cinema. The nestor of Czechoslovak film, dramaturge and screenwriter Meir Lubor Dohnal and Slovak writer, poet, surrealist, collagist, pataphysicist, essayist, screenwriter, dramaturge, visual artist, critic and translator Albert Marenčín took the ASFK Annual Award for their contribution to Slovak cinema and the club movement.

- In 2017, the ASFK brought 55 full-length films to cinemas; of these 15 were re-releases, and the short animated film Yellow (Žítá, SK, 2017, dir. Ivana Šebestová).

- The ASFK has also offered the Video on Demand service since June 2016 (www.asfkvod.sk).

- Ice Mother (Bába z ledu, CZ/FR/SK, 2017, dir. Bohdan Sláma) became the best-attended art-house film in 2017 with 14,491 viewers. As many as three domestic titles were in the TOP 10 art-house films.

AWARDS FOR SLOVAK FILMS AND FILMMAKERS ABROAD

- Slovak films were successful not only with domestic audiences, attracting almost 1.5 million viewers, but also at festivals abroad. With the exception of the Venice Film Festival, almost all the most prestigious festivals selected Slovak films for inclusion in their programmes, and the films and filmmakers received awards from many of them. And if we also add the European Film Award for Best Actress, it seems likely that the record year of 2017 will prove very difficult to beat.

The upcoming film by director Peter Kerekes, The Censor (Cenzorka) won the Works in Progress Award. Freedom (Freiheit, DE/SK, dir. Jan Speckenbach) received its world première at the 70th Locarno IFF (Switzerland); this film was also screened at the 33rd Warsaw IFF (Poland) together with Nina – FIPRESCI Award, and the short animated film 39 Weeks, 6 Days (39 týždňov, 6 dní, SK, 2017, dir. Joanna Kožuch, Boris Šima). The short film Magic Moments (SK, 2016, dir. Martina Buchelová) received its world première in the competition at the Toronto IFF where Nina was also included in the programme. Bohdan Sláma won the Best Screenplay in an International Narrative Feature Film Award at the 16th Tribeca Film Festival in New York (USA) for Ice Mother and The Teacher (Učiteľka, SK/CZ, 2016, dir. Jan Hiebejik) won the SIGNIS Award – Special Mention of the Jury at the 41st Hongkong IFF.

The Slovak Film and Television Academy (SFTA) nominated The Line for the Academy Awards in the Best Foreign Language Film category. Ice Mother was nominated by the Czech Republic and Spoor by Poland.

The SFTA nominated the fiction film Little Harbour by Iveta Grófová and the documentary A Hole in the Head (Diera v hlave, SK/CZ, 2016, dir. Robert Kirchhoff) for the European Film Awards.

As many as three Slovak films were entered in the prestigious selection of the 51 best European films of the previous year. The Teacher (even though it was not nominated by the SFTA), the Czech nomination Ice Mother and the Polish nomination Spoor.

Alexandra Borbély, a Hungarian actress of Slovak origin, won the European Film Award for Best Actress for her performance in On Body and Soul (Teströl és léleköről, HU, 2017, r. Ildikó Enyedi).

Spoor, The Line, Little Harbour and Filthy were the most requested and the most awarded full-length films of 2017. In addition to the Silver Bear from Berlin, Spoor also won awards at the 42nd Gdynia Polish Film Festival (Poland) – Best Director and Best Make-Up, at the 62nd Valladolid IFF (Spain) – Best Actress for Agnieszka Mandat-Grabka, and at the Fantasia International Film Festival Montreal (Canada) – Grand Prix, and Katarzyna Lewińska won the European Film Award for Best European Costume Designer.

After winning the Best Director Award at the 52nd Karlovy Vary IFF, The Line embarked on a journey across festivals and won, for example, the Grand Jury Prize and Young Gaze Award at the 18th Arras Film Festival (France) and the Best Art Direction Award at the 53rd Chicago IFF (USA).

After winning the Crystal Bear at the Berlinale, Little Harbour won the Grand Prix for Best Film of the Year – ex aequo with Bye Bye Germany (Es war einmal in Deutschland..., DE, 2017, dir. Slovak Film Institute

- The Slovak Film Institute (SFI, www.sfu.sk) is the sole state organisation operating in the area of audiovision in Slovakia.

- The SFI has been a member of the International Federation of Film Archives...
In 2017, the SFI implemented the following priority projects: Statutory Repository – treatment of original reproduction and security film materials, Presentation of Slovak Cinema and Audiovisual Abroad, Scientific and Research Activities, Slovak Film Week (in collaboration with the Slovak Film and Television Academy and Radio and Television of Slovakia), the 147th Eurimages Meeting in Slovakia and SK CINEMA Information System. In addition, a project within bilateral collaboration on the basis of a mandate from the International Cooperation Section of the Ministry of Culture – Russian Film Days in Bratislava was implemented.

- The National Digital Audiovision project was implemented from 2011 within the Operational Programme “Information Society” – Priority Axis 2, Development of Memory and Fund Institutions and Restoration of Their National Infrastructure. The Slovak Film Institute implemented the project in collaboration with its partner – Radio and Television of Slovakia (RTVS). The project was physically finished, i.e. the project activities were completed on 30 November 2015 when all the measurable indicators were successfully fulfilled, and in financial terms the project was closed on 22 June 2016, hence the entire project was completed. On 23 June 2016 the project entered into its sustainability phase which will last for five years from the end of the project; the SFI has made a commitment to digitise at least 50 film items per year during this period. The Digital Audiovision project is maintained on behalf of the SFI by the staff of the Digital Audiovision (DA) Department on the premises of the digitisation workplace. This workplace was constructed in the first half of 2014 and it constitutes a comprehensive functional and systematic unit for the digitisation and digital restoration of the film heritage with direct ties to the complete process of preservation of the Slovak audiovisual heritage and rendering it accessible. In 2017, 72 films (animated, documentary, feature, newscastr films) were digitised within it.

- The 147th and, at the same time, historically the first meeting of the Board of Management of the Eurimages Fund in Slovakia, was a significant event in 2017. Representatives of 38 European countries and Canada, as the first non-European Member State of the Fund, took part in the meeting held in Bratislava, including Roberto Olla, the Executive Director of the Eurimages Fund, and Catherine Trautmann, the President of the Council of Europe’s Eurimages Fund. At the meeting EUR 7,104,340 was allocated among 27 film projects. (For more details, refer to the chapter on EURIMAGES.)

- SK CINEMA Information System (project approved by the Ministry of Culture of the Slovak Republic, hereinafter referred to as the “MC SR”) – by the end of 2017, the total number of recordings in the system attained 555,994 which represents an increase of 21,879 recordings over the course of 2017. The SFI databases (Slovak Film Database, SFI Catalogue, SFI Thesaurus) are also available to the general public on the Internet via the SK CINEMA portal at www.skcinema.sk. It was launched in 2013 and 186,147 searches were made in it in 2017.

- Systematic Restoration of the Slovak Audiovisual Heritage Project

In 2017, the long-term Systematic Restoration of the Slovak Audiovisual Heritage Project continued, aimed at preservation and restoration. The project began in 2004 and has been continuously supported by the Slovak Government since 2006. Among other aims, it focuses on the renewal and rescue of SFI film collections from tri-acetate and nitro-cellulose to polyester. The complete production of 35 mm film materials was performed in the Film Laboratories of Ateliery Bonton Zlín. The works were carried out under the special technical supervision of the staff of the SFI’s Film Archive Department. (For more information, refer to the chapter on LEGISLATION.)

- Presentation of Slovak Cinema Abroad (project approved by the MC SR) – this project has been implemented by the National Cinematographic Centre since 2009. In 2017, the project was implemented in an updated version for the period of 2016–2018 with financial support from the Ministry of Culture. Its aim is to increase the extent and quality of the presentation of Slovak cinema and audiovisual abroad and, at the same time, to contribute to rendering it more visible. Re-presenting Slovakia in the Council of Europe’s Cinema Support Fund – Eurimages – has been part of the project since 2014.

Presentations at the international film markets EFM Berlin, Marché du film Cannes and the Karlovy Vary IFF were again the main activities within the project in 2017.

- The long-term fundamental tasks of the SFI in the upcoming period include the performance of the tasks of a statutory repository of audiovisual works, the provision of comprehensive professional maintenance for the cinematographic section of the national cultural heritage of Slovakia, and, as part of this, in particular, the complete systematic rescue and restoration of its film collections, including their transcription to digital and magnetic media, the gradual digitisation of archive collections for the purposes of long-term storage and rendering them available via new media, the professional cataloguing of archive items and collections, the description of their content, and subsequently rendering them available to the public.

- The basic organisational units are the National Film Archive (NFA) and the National Cinematographic Centre (NCC).

- In accordance with the decision of the Slovak Ministry of the Interior, the National Film Archive (NFA) is a specialised public archive consisting of unique film and film-related archive funds and collections.

- The National Cinematographic Centre (NCC) coordinates the Audiovisual Information Centre, the Department of Film Events, the Publications Department, the Film.sk editorial office and the information offices of the EU and Council of European programmes.

Its main role is to collate and provide comprehensive up-to-date information, statistics and information services relating to Slovak cinematography, as well as the promotion and presentation of Slovak film at home and abroad. The activities of the NCC, which focus, in particular, on the current creation and production of Slovak audiovisual works, are thus a natural supplement of the NFA activities, focused primarily on archiving, cataloguing and making the audiovisual heritage available. Since 2009 the NCC has been in charge of the implementation of the priority project entitled Presentation of Slovak Cinematography Abroad.

- The Audiovisual Information Centre (AIC) acts as an information centre on events entailing audiovision in Slovakia and abroad. The AIC collates, processes and publishes the information which arrives at the Ministry of Culture or the SFI from the area of audiovision, and is intended for experts in Slovak cinema and audiovision. All up-to-date and relevant information is available on www.aic.sk, which also includes an online database of Upcoming Slovak Films (www.aic.sk/slovakfilms).

- With regard to the presentation of Slovak cinema at international film forums, the AIC collated and processed basic documents for the production of promotional materials on the current situation in Slovak audiovision (e.g. Slovak Films 16–17).

- In accordance with Section 21 subpar. (1) letter u) of Act No. 40/2015 on Audiovision, the SFI shall “ensure the activities of the information offices of the European Union and Council of Europe programmes for the support of audiovision”. On 1 January 2014 the Creative Europe Desk Slovakia was established in connection with the adoption of the new Creative Europe Programme for 2014–2020 (Regulation No. 1295/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 11 December 2013). The previous Cultural Contact Point and MEDIA Desk Slovakia were subsumed into it. The role of the Creative Europe Desk is to provide for the dissemination of information on the Creative Europe Programme and to provide administrative support for project promoters. (For more information, refer to the chapter on MEDIA Sub-programme.)

- The SFI has operated Cinema Lumière since September 2011. Films are currently screened in four screening rooms with digital projection technology to DCI standards with the following capacities: K1 – 195 seats, K2 – 79 seats, K3 – 36 seats and K4 – 44 seats. Screening room K3 entitled Filmothèque – Study Screening Room of the SFI, screens mainly archived foreign and Slovak films and the films are predominantly projected on 35 mm prints. In 2017, 107,387 viewers attended screenings at the cinema which represents a 57% increase on the previous year.

- The only specialised film library in Slovakia (14,465 books, 208 CDs, 1,997 scripts and 2,386 archived periodicals) and a mediathèque (25,901 films, of these 3,481 Slovak titles) form part of the SFI.

- The SFI has issued Film.sk, the monthly on film events in Slovakia, since 2000. In 2017, a special English edition of Film.sk was published for the fifth time.

- The SFI’s Publications Department issues the filmological magazine Kino-Ikon, which has been a professionally reviewed magazine since 2014, in collaboration with the ASFK.

- In 2017, the SFI issued four publications: Invisible History of Documentary Filmmakers (Neviditeľné dejiny dokumentaristov) by Rudolf Urc; German Autumn (Nemecká jesen) in connection with the eponymous film review that lasted several months in Cinema Lumière, in collaboration with the Association of Slovak Film Clubs; an essay in the form of a letter, Out of Darkness (Sortīr du noir) which the French philosopher and art historian Georges Didi-Huberman addresses to Hungarian director László Nemes; and the SFI also participated in the publication of Martin Palúch’s book Censorship and Documentary Film after 1989 (Cenzúra a dokumentárny film po roku 1989) issued by the publishing house Drewo a Srd.
- In 2017, the SFI also obtained the important qualification certificate for the performance of research and development which is issued by the Slovak Centre of Scientific and Technical Information at the Ministry of Education, Science, Research and Sport of the Slovak Republic.
- As regards films, the SFI issued Forget Mozart (Zabudnite na Mozarta, CS, 1985, dir. Miloslav Luther) on DVD, the 2-DVD Magical World of Animated Film (Čarovný svet animovaného filmu) in collaboration with ALEF Film & Media Group, the Italian-Slovak version of Peter Solan’s film The Barnabáš Kos Case (Prípad Barnabáš Kos, CS, 1964) presented at Sapienza University in Rome, and a DVD collection with 5 DVDs and ten episodes of the documentary series FEMALE FIRST (PRVÁ). The issue of the Blu-ray collection Best of Viktor Kubal included the animated films Brigand Jurko (Zbojník Jurko, CS, 1976), The Bloody Lady (Krvavá pani, CS, 1980) and a selection of the author’s short animated films. (For more details, refer to the chapter on VIDEODISTRIBUTION.)
- The SFI’s outlet Klapka.sk offers a wide assortment of filmological literature, CDs and DVDs and other film materials. In total, 1,102 publications, 5,310 DVDs and 298 BDs were sold in 2017 (in 2016 it was 1,077 publications and 5,183 DVDs).
- The SFI continues to conclude licence agreements for the sale of television broadcasting rights. In 2017, licence agreements for broadcasting full-length fiction films were concluded with Radio and Television of Slovakia, TV Markíza, TV JOJ, Czech Television, CS Film and R+L, spol. s r. o. which provides broadcasting of the regional TV channel TV RAJ on behalf of the licence-holder, Raj Production, s.r.o. Contractual collaboration with TA3 also continued as regards the broadcasting of film newreels (Week in Film newreels from 1957, 1958, 1967 and 1968). Collaboration with TV Markíza continued within the VOYA Internet service in the form of Subscription Video on Demand (SVOD) and also with O2 Czech Republic a.s. within Video on Demand services. Audiences could thus view selected Slovak films from the SFI’s archive in videotheques at www.o2tv.cz and www.voyo.markiza.sk. In 2017, licence agreements for 116 films entered into effect.
- The preparation and stipulation of the conditions of the public tender for licensing TOP films for the Slovak territory in accordance with the conclusions of the working meeting, which took place in the SFI on 1 March 2017 with the presence of the General Directors and Directors of the four largest Slovak broadcasters (RTVS, TV Markíza, TV JOJ, TA3), was one of the most demanding tasks in 2017. This meeting was initiated by the General Director of the Media, Audiovision and Copyright Section of the MCSR. The TOP 45 include, in particular, films from the lists of best-attended films in 2012 – 2016 and, as regards the genre, fairy tales are the most frequently licensed titles.
- Every year the SFI has a part in the production of new Slovak films by entering into co-production projects. As a co-production partner, it usually provides archive film materials.
- As of 31 December 2017, the SFI archived 3,728,138 metres of Slovak films (the length of the individual works and fragments expressed in metres of film material). The SFI holds 21,121,169 metres in total of all kinds of film materials to Slovak works archived in the SFI’s collections and funds.

Events with Slovak Films Abroad
- In 2017, in addition to organising and co-organising most of the domestic events listed in the chapter on DOMESTIC FESTIVALS AND REVIEWS, the SFI also promoted Slovak cinema at film events abroad. The most important events abroad promoting Slovak cinema in 2017 were: Rotterdam IFF with Filthy (Špina, CZ/SK, 2017, dir. Tereza Nvotová) in the Bright Future Section, 67th Berlin IFF (Germany) – in addition to Slovakia taking part in the EFM, Little Harbour (Plato lod, SK/CZ, 2017, dir. Iveta Grófová) won the Crystal Bear for Best Film in the Generation Kplus competition section and Spoor (Pokot, PL/DE/CZ/SE/SK, 2017, dir. Agnieszka Holland, Kasia Adamik) won the Silver Bear – the Alfred Bauer Prize. A Prominent Patient (Masaryk, SK/CZ, 2016, dir. Julius Ševčík) also received its international premiere. Vilnius IFF – Kino Pavarosas (Lithuania), 17th goEast Wiesbaden (Germany), 8th Anifilm Třeboň (Czech Republic), Filmfest Zlin (Czech Republic), Meeting Slovak Culture in Sevilla (Spain), Cannes IFF (France) where, in addition to the film market, Marché du Film, Slovak films were also represented in the Un Certain Regard section – Out (SK/HU/CZ, 2017, dir. György Kristóf), and Atlantis, 2003 (Atlantída, 2003, SK/CZ, 2017, dir. Michal Blaško) received its world première in the Cinéfondation short film competition. After a year’s absence, Slovakia again had its representative, Katarína Knáčová (production company Silverart), at the prestigious Producers on the Move programme of the European Film Promotion.
- The 19th Cinema on the Border, Cieszyn (Poland) and Český Těšín (Czech Republic), expressed interest in Slovak films as well as the 30th Finale Plzeň (Czech Republic) with 25 Slovak and co-production films in the programme.
- 43rd Summer Film School Uherské Hradiště (Czech Republic) with the following sections – Guests: Magda Vášáryová and Guests: Miro Remo, 46th Lubuskie Film Summer, Lagow (Poland), 5th Czecho-Slovak Film Festival in the Australian cities of Melbourne, Canberra, Sydney and Perth, 10th Central and Eastern European Film Festival “CinEast” (Luxembourg), 21st IDFF Jiříčkov (Czech Republic), 33rd Warsaw Film Festival (Poland) where Nina (SK, 2017, dir. Juraj Lehotský) took the FIPRESCI Award, Cine Europa Manila and other cities (The Philippines), Toronto IFF (Canada), Cairo IFF (Egypt) with eight Slovak films, Cottbus FF (Germany) and 2017 was concluded with the significant Slovak and Central European Cinema Event, Rencontres du Cinéma Slovaque et d’Europe Centrale in Cran Gévier (France).

- Summary of events with Slovak films with SFI participation in 2017
  - Number of events: 107 (182 in 2016)
    - of these: domestic: 15 (16 in 2016)
    - foreign: 92 (166 in 2016)
  - Number of films presented: 149 (141 in 2016)
  - Number of states (excl. Slovakia): 36 (46 in 2016)

The films most in demand out of the new productions in 2017 were Little Harbour by Iveta Grófová, Filthy by Tereza Nvotová and The Teacher (Učiteľka, SK/CZ, 2016) by Jan Hřebejk, and from the archives Birdies, Orphans and Fools (Vtáčkovia, siroty a blázni, CS/FR, 1969) by Juraj Jakubisko, The Boxer and Death (Boxer a smrť, CS, 1962) by Peter Solan and The Sun in a Net (Slnko v seti, CS, 1962) by Štefan Uher. The world première of Viktor Kubal’s digitally restored animated film The Bloody Lady (Krvavá paní, CS, 1980) at the prestigious festival of archive films, the Lumière Grand Lyon Film Festival, was the most significant event.

- Public RTVS is the sole broadcaster mandated to provide programmes under the law, with a mission to provide a public service in the area of broadcasting. In 2017, it broadcast on Jednotka and Dvojka. Jednotka – in 2017, cinematographic works, TV series of domestic and foreign origin, entertainment and sports constituted the basis of its programme structure. Dvojka – its broadcasting was directed towards minority, demanding audiences and specific target groups, Slovak regions and national minorities.

The daytime audience share of Dvojka was 2.8% and 2.56% for prime time. The Slovakia – Latvia match in the 2017 Ice Hockey World Championships achieved the highest viewing figures on Jednotka (20.77% rating) and the Russia – Slovakia match in the quarter-finals in the Ice Hockey Under-18 World Championships on Dvojka (9.08%).

- Within their own drama production, RTVS produced, for example, 13 episodes of the TV series Secret Lives II (Tajné životy II, SK, 2017, dir. Ján Sebechlebský), the two-part mini-series Maria Theresa (Mária Terézia, CZ/AT/HU/SK, 2017, dir. Robert Dornhelm) and also the 10-part TV series Carpathian Stories (Příběhy spod Karpát, SK, 2017, dir. Ján Sabol).

- Several children’s programmes were also made: e.g. Take Your Time (Daj si čas, SK, 2017, dir. Martin Kákoš) – 27 episodes, Fidlibum (Fildibum, SK, 2017, ...

RTVS dominated the OTO Awards in the Entertainment Programme Category with five nominations: this year, the entertaining quiz show I Love Slovakia (Milujem Slovensko) did not win for the fifth consecutive year in the Entertainment Programme Category and had to relinquish first place to the folklore show The Earth Is Singing (Zem spieva). Family Feud (5 proti 5), Do I Know? (Čo ja viem) and Duel (Duel) were also nominated.

After occupying first place for a long time, TV Markíza was not the market leader in 2017; it ranked second. Drama programmes, entertainment and journalistic programmes were those mostly represented within its programme structure. As for original programmes, the most popular with audiences were TV series: the fifth season of the TV series Back of Beyond (Horná Dolná, SK, 2017, dir. Tomáš Jančo, Karel Janák, Csaba Molnár, Zuzana Marianová), the 13-episode crime series Rex (SK, 2017, dir. Peter Bebjak, Róbert Šveda, Michal Blaško) and Family Cases (Rodinné prípady) – all of these were nominated for the OTO Award in the TV Series of the Year Category. Extreme Makeover (Extrémne premeny), 10 Years Younger (O 10 rokov mladší) and Fort Boyard (Pevnost Boyard) were nominated for the OTO Award in the Programme of the Year Category and Good to Know! (Dobre vedieť) in the Show of the Year Category.

In 2017, the daytime audience share of TV Markíza was 17.49% and 19.02% for prime time.

The Weather Forecast (Počasie) broadcast on 1 January 2017 achieved the highest rating (14.53%) on TV Markíza. DOMA – is a TV channel belonging to the broadcaster MARKÍZA – SLOVAKIA, spol. s r. o. profiled for female audiences. It has been broadcasting since 31 August 2009. It mainly presented drama programmes, but entertainment and news reports were also represented. In 2017, its daytime market share was 4.2% and 4.73% for prime time. The episode of the TV series Broken Pieces III (Paramparca, TR, 2014, dir. Cevdet Mercan) broadcast on 13 March 2017 achieved the highest rating (5.81%).

DAJTO – is the third TV channel belonging to the broadcaster MARKÍZA – SLOVAKIA, spol. s r. o. It offers films, TV series and programmes for men. It has been broadcasting since 20 August 2012. The Sports News broadcast on 19 June 2017 achieved the highest rating (7.77%).

TV JOJ became the leader in 2017. Drama programmes dominated its schedules. These were supplemented with news programmes, reports and entertainment programmes. In January 2017, TV JOJ began broadcasting the 10-episode TV series Summer Holidays (Prázdniny, SK, 2017, dir. Ivan Predmerský) and its first episode achieved the highest rating of original TV series of all TV channels (13.9%). However, the second season (8 episodes) of the crime series Behind the Glass (Za sklom, SK, 2017, dir. Peter Bebjak, Róbert Šveda, Zuzana Marianková, Michal Blaško) and the 13-episode TV series 1890 (SK, 2017, dir. Peter Begány) were nominated for the OTO Award in the TV Series of the Year Category. The TV programme Seventh Heaven (V siedmom nebi) was nominated for the OTO Award in the Programme of the Year Category and Incognito (Incognito) in the Show of the Year Category.

- The 10-episode crime series Shadow of the Ferns (Svět pod hlavou, CZ/SK, 2017, dir. Marek Najbír, Radim Špaček) was made by TV JOJ based on the original BBC series Life on Mars in co-production with Czech TV and Bionaut. The daytime market share of TV JOJ in 2017 was 16.42% and 22.03% for prime time.

- Three Wishes for Cinderella (Tí i oříšky pro Popelku, CS/DE, dir. Václav Vorlíček) achieved the highest rating (20.67%).

- Plus – the second channel belonging to the JOJ Group has been broadcasting since 5 October 2008. It is a mono-thematic channel focused on drama programmes.

- Its daytime market share in 2017 was 3.37% and 3.44% for prime time. The music show Everything I Like (Všetko čo mám rád) broadcast on 30 December 2017 achieved the highest rating (4.43%).

- WAU – is the third channel belonging to the JOJ Group aimed at younger female audiences and, from summer 2016, also directed at younger audiences attractive to advertising and marketing. It was launched on 15 April 2013.

- In 2017, its daytime market share was 2.56% and 2.49% for prime time. The Courtroom (Súdna sieň) broadcast on 29 December 2017 achieved the highest rating (3.43%).

- RiK – the fourth channel belonging to the JOJ Group, commenced broadcasting on 1 January 2015. It is the first children’s TV channel broadcasting exclusively in Slovak language. No rating data are available.

- Ťuki TV – the fifth channel belonging to the JOJ Group and the second TV channel for children broadcasts programmes for young audiences aged 3 to 10 years exclusively in Slovak language. Unlike RiK it is available for customers of only one Slovak operator (Slovak Telekom). It has been in operation from 1 June 2015. No rating data are available.

- JOJ Cinema – the sixth channel belonging to the JOJ Group, commenced broadcasting on 1 June 2015. The channel broadcasts films on the basis of a Czech licence; the acquisition content of the channel has been legally endorsed for the territory of the Czech and Slovak Republics. No rating data are available.

- JOJ Family – the seventh channel belonging to the JOJ Group and, after JOJ Cinema, the second channel of the JOJ Group operated in the Czech Republic. It was launched on 5 September 2016 and it broadcasts original TV series and programmes of the Slovak TV JOJ for Czech audiences.

- TA3 is a news television channel which offers a comprehensive news and information service on events at home and abroad. Its signal is distributed in Slovakia through most of the cable distribution systems and it covers the entire territory of Slovakia via satellite. TA3 continued to broadcast the historical newscast Week in Film (Týždeň vo filme) in association with the SFI.

- In 2017, its daytime market share was 1.85% and 0.85% for prime time. The TA3 News broadcast on 7 March 2017 was the most watched programme in 2017 (5.28%).

- Digital terrestrial television broadcasting (DVB-T) commenced in the territory of Slovakia in 2004.

- In 2017, the content of the individual multiplexes was as follows:

  - Multiplex 1 – commercial: WAU, TV Lux, TV8 as part of the free-to-view offer, Prima Plus, Sport1, ČT1, ČT2 – as part of the paid offer;
  - Multiplex 2 – commercial: JOJ, JOJ Plus, TA3, Barrandov Family, Info Channel;
  - Multiplex 3 – public: Jednotka, Jednotka HD, Dvojka, Dvojka HD;

- In 2017, several changes were made in the structure of the programme services offered by the individual multiplexes, due to the Markíza Group leaving the free-to-view terrestrial broadcasting and its subsequent return to the paid offer in the programme service retransmission regime in the terrestrial network. The TV channels Barrandov and Prima confirmed their entry into terrestrial broadcasting with programme services for the Slovak market. At the same time, the coverage of the network by Multiplex 1 was increased to over 90% of the population. It seems that in 2018 auxiliary broadcasting services on the hybrid television platform (HbbTV) will be expanded, and TV archives and other content-oriented services will be made available, which means that terrestrial broadcasting is beginning to compete with other distribution platforms as far as comfort is concerned.

- The awards in the Audiovisual Journalism and Photojournalism Category at the 13th Annual Journalist Awards 2016 went to: Pavol Fejér (RTVS) – Best Report: The State in Cahoots with Crime; Michal Havran (RTVS) – Best Interview, Conversation, Discussion: Dinner with Havran; Pavol Fejér (RTVS) – Best Investigative Contribution: National Cycling Crater.

- The awards at the 23rd International Festival of Local TV Channels “Golden Beggar” in Košice (7 – 10 June 2017) went to:
  - Golden Beggar – Production Company category – Spring Flood (Springtij, BE, 2015, dir. Jeannice Adriaansens);
  - Golden Beggar – Local Television category – Strokes (RS, 2016, dir. Vladimir Perović);
  - Golden Beggar – Young Author category – Wintry Spring (Rabie Chetwy, EG, 2015, dir. Mohamed Kamel).

- The awards of the mayors of Rožňava, Spišská Nová Ves and Michalovce were new at this edition of the festival. One-day reviews of films from the previous years were held, for the first time in the Festival’s history, in these three towns.

- In March 2018, the TV Personality Awards OTO 2017 were awarded for the eighteenth time. The winners were: Kristina Kovešová – TV Journalism Personality, Lubomír Bajaník – TV News Anchor, Jozef Kubání – TV News Reporter, Marcel Merčiak – TV Sports Reporter, Marcel Merčiak – TV Sports Anchor, Adela Vinczeová – TV Programme Anchor, Michal Hudák – Best Actor, Lujza Garajová-Schrameková – Best Actress, The Earth Is Singing – Entertainment Programme,
Our Family – TV Series of the Year, Extreme Makeover – TV Programme of the Year, Incognito – Weekly Plus 7 dní Award, Ondrej Kandráč – Best Male Singer of the Year, Mária Čírová – Best Female Singer of the Year, IMT Smile – Best Band of the Year, Milan Kňažko – induction into the Hall of Fame. Adela Vinczeová became the Absolute OTO for the fourth time in a row.

With regard to foreign channels, CS Film broadcasts the most Slovak full-length feature films, television films, TV series and short animated films. CS Film is also available via cable distribution systems and satellite in Slovakia; from 2005 Mondays have been wholly devoted to Slovak works.

Note: Our information was derived from statistical data from the Council for Broadcasting and Retransmission (www.rvr.sk), the individual TV channels, Towercom and PMT, s.r.o. (we would like to express our gratitude to Vladimír Fatika).
